Thoughts for prayers SHALOM

God was moved to mercy by the prayer of one faithful member (Moses) of an unfaithful race! His blessing will remain with this people, no matter how far they de-generate.

“Our sins are nothing but a grain of sand alongside the great mountain of the mercy of God!” (St. John Vianney). As Pope Francis says: “Mercy will always be greater than any sin; no one can place limits on the love of God. So let God give you the 2

Chapter 15 of Luke contains the parables of mercy, narrated with such intensity that there is no need for commentaries. The only condition to understand them is to have an attitude of listening, to let it resonate in our consciousness the clear words that describe the joy of our own and others’ forgiveness. God, shepherd of souls, searches, waits paternally, is happy if we return to him after dissipation of sin, celebrates the conversion and looks in a new light our fault. Only the mean-hearted are unable to comprehend the merciful love of the Father.
