Thoughts for prayers SHALOM

Lord, transform my heart and mind.

John the Baptist was someone who was filled with love of humanity. That love was manifested in his concern for the sinful, God-forsaken and the frustrated. That was the meaning of his Baptism.

The first step towards greatness is humility. John in all humility proclaimed the savior to the world and that’s his greatness. Can we, in our daily life, accept others as they are without any traces of jealousy and ill will? Can we, like the Baptist, in all humility proclaim to the world a savior who daily comes to us in the Eucharist? Remember by loving your neighbor you gain the sight of God, by loving your neighbor your eyes are purified as to see God.
